This Thinking World ~

LAST evening I met an old friend of some 25 or 30 years standing. It had been many years since we had seen each other, and I was glad to meet my friend again. When I knew him last, he was engaged in Y.M.C.A. work, and was about as "devout" a Christian as I have ever met. After renewing old memories I said to him—"Bill, still in Y.M.C.A. work I suppose?" "No—I've been out of that for twenty years," he replied. "I'm in the salmon canning business now." I pressed him a little for the reason he gave up his Y.M.C.A. work, and asked him how about his Christian experience. Here is his reply verbatim: "Doc—you know there comes a time in everyone's life when he begins to think, and the more I thought about that Christianity stuff, the less I came to believe in it—these are days when men and women are thinking and I decided I had let the church do my religious thinking long enough so I got out of the racket and here I am."

This world is thinking today for the first time in its existence. And from thinking it will find the solution to its every problem. In other words, it will find God. Not the traditional "god" of the church, but the Spirit of the True God, which Spirit this world had never known until recently. I want to ask a rather pertinent question here. I want to ask you if you have ever taken time to think about the world and yourself in their relation to the Creative Intelligence which must exist, and which must be the primary creative cause of everything that was created?

This world just did not happen. It did not come from nothing, and the fact that it is a constantly changing world is quite sufficient evidence that the creative processes are still going on. The man of today is a totally different thing from the men of 500 years ago. And the change has been upward. The more man has developed the faculty of thinking, the faster has man progressed. To look at the world as a whole, one is not very much encouraged with the immediate future, for it looks black certainly. But from the viewpoint of the spiritual pioneer, it never was brighter. Whenever a child is born, there are birth pangs. And this universe groans and travails in pain at this time, but it only does it because it is about to give birth to a new civilization. A civilization which, for the first time in the history of the universe — will actually know God.

Now did it ever occur to you, if you have tried to think your way out of the cosmic muddle, that the fault might all lie with man? It does, whether you have seen this as yet or not. For in the hands and the minds of man lies the complete solution to the mysteries (?) of life and the universe. Had it not been for the false religious theories advanced by man, universal peace would be on the face of the earth tonight. I mention religious theories because the answer to this mess lies in the realm of true religion. I said true religion. I did not say church religion. For there is a vast difference. And the thinking generation knows that.

A few years ago, anything one was

This is a partial picture of the linotype department of The Daily Idahonian, which is the only daily newspaper in Moscow. Mrs. Robinson holds a substantial interest in this newspaper. It does all the "Psychiana" printing. Occupying a fine new building, the plant operates four linotypes, and at this writing it is hard put to keep up with the "Psychiana" orders alone, not to mention the other work incidental to a large daily. It is nothing for "Psychiana" to have on order over 1,000,000 pieces of literature to be printed. The usual run is 50,000. All this because one day, ten years ago, Dr. Robinson printed. Where all this will end, we do not know. But we do know that as men and women find out what the Spirit of God is doing through its actual presence on the earth, we shall not be able to meet the demands made upon us for this Teaching. The Spirit of God, however, will handle that for us when that time comes.

A Hitler Offer - - - - -

DATED November 8th, the following letter came to me. I reproduce it here in full. It is, of course, unsigned at this time, although this party did not know what a good checking system I have, and I know who mailed this letter. The letter has been turned over to the Department of Justice, where all such communications go.

"Received your pamphlet (At Last War). We hope you give this answer due attention. You know Germany laid down arms on President Wilson's fourteen points. You know Allied powers took German possessions contrary to the above and strangled that nation. Germany demands back all her former possessions and offers in return lasting peace.

These powers refuse to return what they took so Hitler will take it by force to have room for his people. Now if you will agree to work on above basis we will give you all the money you need for your work.

We will contact you as soon as we receive a pamphlet publishing above facts. We are for justice for all."

This letter is a direct offer to me to throw the force of this Movement behind the Hitler regime and as a result of this offer whatever money I need would be placed at my disposal for this work. I don't think there is any question about that. Nor is there any questioning the fact that if this Movement had a few hundred thousand dollars behind it, I could revolutionize this world for God. This will be done in any event. It could be done so much quicker if we had unlimited finances. But this letter, of course, was at once sent to the F. B. I. in Chicago, where the letter originated.

Not so long ago, I was approached by an agent of the Russian Comintern, and he too promised me half a million dollars in cash, if I would deny the existence of God in my Teachings. He sent a message to the platform of Trinity Auditorium in Los Angeles, in which I was holding a series of meetings. Being rather intrigued to find out just how far the Communist Party would go in their attempts to eliminate God, I kept the appointment after the meeting, and the above offer was made to me, and, of course, it was at once refused.

Why these God-hating organizations, and agents of Hitler should come to me, I do not know. For if there is a man in these United States who is fighting for God, I am that man. Outside of this Movement and the manifestations which are following in its wake, I do not know of a single organization in this country which is bringing to men and women, the pure unadulterated Power of the Spirit of God. In the midst of pagan superstition which is masquerading as being of God, there shines out one beacon light in the middle of this war-torn, discouraged world. That beacon light is "Psychiana."

This Movement had its inception in the Realm of the Spirit of God. The phenomenal success which has followed it is due entirely to the Power of the Spirit of God behind the whole Movement. None anywhere are battling for God as we are here. So this is the last place Hitlerites and Communists should look for support. By this time they know this.

Perhaps the reason these people think that I might be interested in their financial propositions, might be because I expose so mercilessly pagan myth and superstition which masquerade under the garb of the Spirit of God. Perhaps they think that the church, because it professes to be an "agent of God" really is such. But they make a mistake certainly. For in attacking pagan myth and superstition, I am fighting for the Realm of the Spirit of God. And this Realm of Spiritual Power certainly knows nothing about foolish theories which the church possesses. Every fundamental teaching of every major religious organization on the face of the earth, can be traced back to old pagan myths and traditions. And certainly God, the Great Creator of this universe, and of you, and me, knows nothing of any doctrine which teaches "rivers of blood flowing from the veins of a crucified god." The Spirit of God can know nothing of any system of religion which teaches that "without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sins." The Realm of the Spirit of God knows nothing of any theology which teaches that God, the Infinite Spirit of God, created man some 6000 years ago, and then because He found out He had made a bad man, proceeded to drown the whole civilization like rats in a trap.

You wouldn't try to tell me that, would you? I care not who teaches that sort of doctrine. It is not true. It is the result of pagan superstitions, and this world will never have the truths of God brought to it by any such philosophy as that. So I attack that false philosophy. It has shed more blood itself, and wrought more havoc in this world than any other philosophy I have ever heard of. Had the true conception of God, direct from the Realm of the Spirit of God ever been brought to this earth, there would be no war in Europe or anywhere else in any country.

Any religious philosophy that teaches that the Great Infinite Almighty God hung, crucified on a cross, to wash away the "sins" of the world, is an untrue philosophy. No thinking man can ever accept it. Yet all churches teach it, and therein lies their own doom. They had better get away from it as fast as they possibly can. For it is not true, and can very easily be proven to be not true.

If Jesus Christ was the Son of God as he hung there on a cross at Calvary, and if he was the only "son of God" this world has ever known, which he must be if the story is true, then where did the other crucified gods of antiquity come from? If the church story of Jesus Christ is true, where did the story of Chrishna, 1400 years before, come from? They both were born of a virgin. The virgin's name in each case was Mary. They both rose from the dead on the third day, they both were called the "son of God." They both came down from "heaven" as the second part of the Holy Trinity of Three Gods, and they both rose from the dead and ascended

Questions and Answers

Ques: When you talked with God as your ads say, what part of God did you talk to?

Ans: All of God. God has no "parts." Nor is God a "trinity." Just one supreme Creative Intelligence—that's what God is. Completely Spirit. The "trinity" idea is pagan in its origin.

Ques: How do you account for all the miracles the saints of the Catholic church have performed if, as you say, the Catholic church is not a holy church?

Ans: I know of no "miracles" performed by any "saint" of the Catholic church. I know of a lot of "fakery" that has been offered to the world from time to time as "miracles." There are no miracles in the Realm of God. What you might refer to as "miracles" are ordinary every-day workings of the Spirit of God. That Spirit is not confined to any church. If a Catholic knows the Spirit of God in his or her life, that Spirit can be made to respond just as it is responding here. The Roman Catholic church, while it claims to be "the bride of Christ" and all that stuff, is just another system of theology. If it reveals the Power of the Spirit of God to the world, well and good. If it does not, it has no valid excuse to offer for its existence. This business of "saving souls" is all washed up. The soul is in the body, and we are interested in the life we now live. The job of all churches is to bring the Power of the Spirit of God to mankind. They are not doing it. So we are, and make no claims to being "the bride of Christ" or of anyone else. We are just two men who believe in the present existence of the Spirit of God, and its ability to make itself known to the whole world.

Ques: I think you are a good man. I believe you are honest. I pray for you every night that God may guide your footsteps into the true Light which is Jesus Christ. May I continue to do this?

Ans: Surest thing you know. Many thousands of people are praying for me. I appreciate it all. If there is more light I should have than I now have, I want it. Keep on praying, only, don't you attempt to tell God just where I should be. Perhaps God knows a bit better than you do. But by all means keep praying for me. I need it.

Ques: If you had half a million dollars what would you do with it?

Ans: I don't know whether this question was sent in as a joke, or whether this Student wants to give me or loan me that sum of money. If he will tell me the intent of the question I will answer him by personal letter. If anyone else has that much money and wants to use it for the extension of the Kingdom of God, I can show them how it can be done. I'll even let them spend the money, under my direction.

Ques: If Jesus Christ was a mythical character, was the Apostle Paul also?

Ans: You have never heard me say Jesus Christ was a mythical character. As a GOD, yes, he was a myth, but he may have lived as a MAN. There is no authentic history, however, which ever heard of Jesus Christ. Outside of the Christian bible, a very unsafe book to depend on historically, you cannot find mention of the man. I think perhaps a Jew called Paul lived. If he did, he was a great promoter.

Ques: I am a "Psychiana" Student and learned about God through your wonderful Lessons. I feel I want to still go to church. I miss it. Have you any objections to my going?

Ans: Absolutely none. Your duty is to go to church and tell others of the Power of the Spirit of God in them. Let them read your Lessons. Start a "Psychiana" Study Group in your locality. Put classified ads in the paper telling when and where it meets. Do everything you can, everywhere, to make God real to others. Get after the preacher. If you can convert him, you've done something worth while.

back to heaven. And unless the Hindoo, as well as the Christian, believes that story, they are damned.

Now, what I want to know is, how could the Christian's story of Jesus Christ, as God, be either original or true in the light of the existence of practically the same story known 1400 years before to more people than ever heard of the story of Jesus Christ? That's what I want to know. And no theologian yet has been able to answer that question for me. They do not like me to ask this question. They would far rather I kept quiet about it. But I'm not going to keep quiet. If that story of the relationship of God to man is not true, the truth must lie somewhere else. And some years ago I made up my mind to find that truth. And I did find it. And as a result, hundreds of thousands have also found that truth to the eternal joy of their whole families.

And there are hundreds of thousands on this earth now, who, as a result of finding the Power of the Spirit of God through this Teaching, have blasted into atoms every claim of every church that you cannot know God unless you believe their story of Jesus Christ and him crucified. If this Movement grows for the next ten years as it is growing now, we shall be bigger than all the church organizations combined, and the day when all men shall personally know the invisible Spirit, God, will not be far off. That is all I am working for, beloved.

This pagan myth of Jesus Christ as God, is getting shop-worn. Men do not find God through it. It's a ghastly teaching which blasphemes the name of the Almighty God every time it is mentioned. No wonder churches are losing right and left. They should lose. For when the church (God bless it) fails in its attempt to bring God to the world, it may be sure it is coming to the world with the wrong philosophy. And, you will remember, you can fool all the people some of the time; you can fool some of the people all the time; but you can't fool all the people all the time.

And the day is here when men and women refuse to longer be fooled by either preacher or priest. So desperate is the condition of the world today, that necessity has made it necessary that another picture of God be brought to this earth. "The Cross of Jesus" has no merit in it. It never did have. It has been told too many times of too many "crucified gods." And as men and women begin to think, and as world conditions become worse, and as the hunger for God increases in human hearts, the truths of God had to be made known.

I take no credit for these truths. I am, in the Realm of the Spirit of God, somewhat like Hitler is in the physical, material realm. That is—a product of the times. Neither Hitler nor I have enough innate ability to head the Movements we both head. Yet we both are here. Hitler is out to destroy the name of God and drive it from the face of the earth. So is Communism. I, on the other hand, am out to bring to this earth the truths of the Spirit of God. I am out to see that no one drives the name of God from off the face of the earth. I am here to expose pagan superstition which has been masquerading in the name of God, because times are so serious internationally that this mistake about Jesus Christ absolutely must be rectified, or these war-mad dictators might win their conquest. There is no human power which can stop them now. Just one Power can stop them

"Psychiana" is a Movement of the Spirit of God on the earth, and the aim of this Magazine is to assist "Psychiana" in making the Spirit of God a vital living Power in the lives of our fellow-men. The Movement is non-denominational. Its Members comprise adherents to every faith in the world. It wants to help them all. We have no "articles of faith" nor do we have creeds or rituals. We know man exists, and we know the Spirit of God exists. We know man can know the Power of the Spirit of God while on this earth, and through this Movement God is being made a Living Reality to men and women of every race and creed all over the world.

Whenever it is necessary, this Magazine speaks very plainly. Many traditions of "orthodoxy" are shown for what they really are. Whenever we find ancient myth and superstition masquerading as being of the Spirit of God, we bring the facts to the world, kindly but forcefully. We believe the Power of the Spirit of God is abundantly able to step into this desperate and discouraging world picture, and bring a permanent peace. To this end we are striving, and as the Spirit of God reveals Itself to us, we reveal It to others without fear.

Members of every church are cordially invited to come and find and use the Power of the Spirit of God with us. An infinite love for all is the motivating Power of this entire Movement. Through this Movement the Spirit of God is making Its presence known on earth.

told about God would be instantly believed. If you told men and women that God made a mistake when He created man and drowned them all from off the face of the earth, you would be believed. If you told people that God had prepared a big book in the sky, and only those whose names were written in the book would ever see God, you would have been believed. If some religious leader came along and told you that if you did not believe in the doctrines of his religious organization you would be damned, you would have gathered many who would have believed you. If you had told men that God had prepared a great lake of fire and brimstone for the devil and his angels and all who would not believe that, you could have had followers by the million.

But as the race has progressed, men have begun to think. And with the thinking has come the almost universal discarding of such conceptions of the Deity. Today, men are saying, "Why?" They want to know. If you tell a man today that unless he believes on the name of Jesus Christ he will be damned, he will say to you—"How do you get that way?" or something else on that order. If he wants to spare your feelings, he will just simply pass you up. He is not interested.

But we of "Psychiana" believe there is a solution to the vexing problems of life. There is a solution to this horrible problem of war, injustice, strike, immorality, suffering—all these and many more things can, we believe, be answered, and they can be answered here and now, right where we are. And they will be answered when men and women begin to think. Not until. Just as long as we allow someone else to do our religious thinking for us, these things can only be answered in accordance with the theories of the one we allow to do our thinking for us. But the answer to these heavy problems does not appear on the horizon yet, in spite of the fact that there are so many different conceptions of God that one would go crazy if he attempted to examine them all. For I am convinced, in fact I know, that the answer to these problems of life lies in a correct and true understanding of the relationship which exists between man, the created, and God, the creator.

Certain it is that no religious organization on the face of the earth today can do anything towards bringing to man the very faintest hope that anything he has been able to originate can even begin to save this world. I respect sincerely and truly everyone's conception of God. But the fact remains that to date, no conception of God has been advanced which could prove its truth. Not only that, not a single conception of God has been advanced which can do one single thing towards manifesting the power of God to man. And that's all religion is supposed to do. It has never been able to do it, for in spite of all the religions on the face of the earth today, take a look at it. It speaks for itself, and it speaks for the utter failure of every known system of religion.

I shall be told, of course, that the reason Christianity or any other religion has not "saved" the world is because man has never given them a chance to. Well, what is the reason man won't give it a chance? Just simply because the stories advanced by these systems of religion are so idiotic that man cannot even believe them, let alone follow them. There was a time when the "heretic" would be rocked in a bath tub filled with iron spikes in order to induce him to "accept" the Christian faith. But those days are forever gone. And with their passing, man is beginning to think.

I have a suggestion I would like to make to you all. We have seen the failure, absolute and complete, of any religious organization to either straighten out this world, or to bring the consciousness of God to man. That has never been done yet by any organization. We have all heard their claims to "divinity" and we have listened, and held our tempers, when we have seen some so-called religious organizations attempting to enter and dominate our political system. But there are two things we have never yet witnessed. We have never yet seen a church organization which can ever hold what membership it has, nor have we seen one of them which can actually bring the Power of the Spirit of God to the earth.

So what's the matter with you and me pushing these religious theories to one side for the time being, and seeing what we can do towards finding the Power of God ourselves. I'm not talking about any wishy-washy sentimental sob-sister religion now; I'm talking of the experience of man actually discovering who and what God is, and then, when he has discovered that, availing himself of and using the Power of the Great Spirit—God, to bring to him and the world everything that is necessary to bring peace, joy, and happiness into both his life and the lives of those around him. What's the matter with you and me trying that? All right, then, let's see just how far we can go along that line, shall we?

We will start off by admitting the existence of an intelligent Power, call it God or whatever you want to call it. We will admit further, and we know, that some Power created this earth and the heavens and the sea and all that in them is. It also created you and me. So then, this God-Power not only existed, but still exists for we are still alive. And just so long as any sort of life is in this earth, the Creator is still active. All right then, I think we all shall admit two things—first, that we exist, and second, that the Creative Intelligent Power which created us also exists.

Now if the Intelligent Spirit of Life which brought life to this earth in the first place still lives, and if we still live, it means then that both Creator and created exist on the same planet at the same time. More than that, it means also that the Power, or the life which really is us, the motivating force, the invisible Spirit which is in us—not only must be of God, but must be God. For a human being is only a physical body with God in it. You see that, of course.

This, of course, is entirely opposed to what the churches teach, yet there is nothing in what they teach which will deny these simple statements of fact. The only trouble with the churches is that they have to have a lot of man-made tomfoolery which they honestly try to palm off on the unthinking as being of God. It is nothing of the sort. It is man-made in its entirety, and I think can be easily proved to be just that. It takes "blind belief" to accept it. That sort of belief I am not interested in. If God exists—if the Creative invisible Intelligence which made this world, and you, and me, still exists, by all that's holy you and I can find that power. And anyone who tells us we can't find it unless we find it his way, is lying. If we follow those methods, we surely will land up in the ditch.

All right. We have two definitely positive statements of fact. God exists and we exist, and God, or whatever you care to call the Creative Intelligence which made us, actually lives in this physical body of ours, giving it life every moment of the day and night. So—why can't we find God? Is God so dumb that He doesn't know we all want to find Him? Do you think for one moment God is such a mysterious being that he can't be found? Do you think for one second that all the powers of this invisible Spirit—God—are not now eagerly and anxiously awaiting to reveal themselves to us? I tell you they are. And if you do not know the Power of the Great Spirit of God in your life—you are the only one who is preventing it.

In other words, the Power which is God, which Power gives you life, can be found and known by you so simply and easily that it is a pity that you did not find that Power years ago. The only reason you didn't find it is because nobody ever called it to your attention. But I'm calling it to your attention right now. And if you want it to, this moment and this article can begin to change your whole life. Here's what you do, and I assure you it is a good deal more simple than any system of theology I have ever found yet. And the results are much more sure.

Realize the fact that the invisible Creative Intelligence which made you and which still sustains life in you, is the same Creative Intelligence which brought this world into being. Then, having realized that, whenever the need arises, call unto play that Power within you which has for so long lain dormant and hidden. This Power is intelligent. So talk with it. Throw it into play. Depend upon it. If you will do this, you will know beyond any shadow of doubt what God really is and what God will mean to you when you look upon God, if you want to use that word, as God really is.

What you will be actually doing is aligning yourself with the staggering power and intelligence which created the universe. That's saying a lot—created the universe. And surely, the Power which did that, is abundantly able to respond when you require it to. This is as far as I can go in this article. But do it. You know what I'm talking about.

Abiding With God

After you have learned the secret of being alone with God, the next thing to follow is to learn how to abide with God. That means to live with God. If I come to your house, and abide there with you for a while, that means I live with you. I would like to live at least one day with every Student. I shall not live long enough to do that, but I would like to just the same. And with God, well, you can make God an abiding guest, for God abides in you whether you know it or not. If you know it, you are a very happy man. If you don't know it, you labor under a terrific handicap, and there's no need for you to do that. Rather should you live up to the very best of your possibilities through the Power of the Spirit of God in you.

"Ye Men of Athens"

I have just completed and sent to the printer the manuscript of what I believe to be the most dynamic book I have ever written. It is based upon the need for the True God in a world which worships "an unknown god." It tells the story of the start and the amazing growth of this Movement. The book was written under the direct guidance of the Spirit of God, and I think this book will go round the world in record time.

I will personally autograph the first ten thousand copies to my Students. Copies to others cannot be autographed. I suggest you send in your order now. When the book is received from the printer, your autographed copy will be sent you.

Now we go to Akron, Ohio, and there we find a gentleman in the Government Service. Let us see what he says:

Mr. Lee M. Day, Akron, Ohio:

"I am pleased to report that my wife, Maude C. Day, about whom I wired you a few weeks ago, is now well upon the road to recovery. The breach in bladder healed a short time after receiving your wire. She is now home, and can walk a few steps. Please accept my thanks and all my gratitude for your help."

We are as happy as you are, Mr. Day, that your wife recovered. We remember our own little Florence who laid at death's door just about a year ago. Couldn't possibly live, they said. But she did, thanks to the Spirit of the Living God in her, and the simple faith which called it into action. I have known tens of thousands of cases which have come to us, and I have never yet known God to fail in a single instance. God never does. So please live in the consciousness of the Spirit of God in you, as an individual. You will be as happy as a child.

Here is what one Student wrote Mr. Pegler, who undertook to make a laughing-stock out of the "Psychiana" Movement. Bigger men than Mr. Pegler have tried that and failed. We suggest that before Mr. Pegler writes on any subject, he first get full information about it, and then write from that angle. You will note that I did not ask our Members to write Mr. Pegler about these articles. Had I cared to, I could have flooded the office of the syndicate which puts his stuff out, and both they and he would have known something about the size of this Movement. But to me there is one thing of paramount importance—that is—the bringing of the truths of God to this war-torn world. Nothing else matters. I must give every moment of my time to that. I cannot spare the time to do anything else with the world in the condition in which it finds itself today.

This lady did not pay attention to my request that Students NOT write Mr. Pegler, and it's all right, I'm sort of glad she did, for it gives me a chance to show you what the tenor of the letters would have been had I asked you to write. Here is the letter:

"Mr. Westbrook Pegler
Pittsburgh Press
Pittsburgh, Pa.
Dear Sir:-

After reading your article on Dr. Frank B. Robinson, I could only wonder if you misunderstood his teachings because of lack of knowledge, or because you wanted to misunderstand.

I have been studying Dr. Robinson's Teachings for more than two years, and never once have I been asked for money. I have found the Dr. to be an honest upright man, very considerate and very kind hearted. What I like most about his Teaching is that it removes the barrier between God and us. Instead of praying to some intermediary, we go straight to God with our troubles, and it is surprising what a difference that makes.

Instead of "worshipping" Jesus, we love him. Instead of thinking of him as God, we recognize him as a man, human as we are, but filled with the Power of the Living Spirit of God, until he was God-like.

Dr. Robinson helps us wipe out all fear and hate and superstition, and replace it with love, truth and understanding. He does not promise big things in the future or after death, but now while we still are on the earth. He also stresses the fact that if we live right here we need have no fear of the hereafter, etc."

I won't give any more of this letter, as it would take too much space. But I want to thank Mrs. Delp for sending it to Pegler. I trust that some day this man, who has so much ability, and who could make a much greater success writing in a different strain, will find the peace of God which passeth all understanding.

God has always lived in human lives. They have not known that. True religion consists of making that fact known to man. I love doing it. So will you when you begin to do it.

A Hitler Offer

and that Power is the Power of the Spirit of God.

When this Movement comes into its own, and when men and women of all nations, German, British, French and the rest of them know of the present existence of the Spirit of God on this earth with all its Power, the war will instinctively and automatically stop. To that end I am driving. And believe you me, I really am driving. Three local physicians have recently warned me about doing the amount of work I am doing. They have cautioned me to "stop driving." I thank them for that unasked-for advice. They are friends or they would not have offered it to me. But beloved, tell me please how I can stop driving when I see the piteous condition of the world today? How can I do it? Why, I'll drop in my boots some day, but I won't drop until sufficient seeds of the truth of God have been sown to make the harvest sure.

When I was a child, the story of Jesus Christ was very attractive to me. The old hymns were much loved and they still are. I play more hymns on the organ than any other kind of music. They still hold lots of sentiment. But, beloved, sentiment is not enough. Sentiment will not save this war-torn world, and regardless of childhood sentiments and teachings, I have proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that the story of Jesus being crucified on the cross is not true. Therefore, I must very plainly tell the people it is not true, and not only that, I must prove it is not true, and I have done that ten thousand times already. (Read "Gleams over the Horizon" if you doubt that statement.)

Sentiment is one thing. The truths of God are another thing. Only the actual Spirit of God can save mankind and the world in which mankind lives. It does not have in it the elements of truth, which elements it will take to save this world. Therefore, the truths of God cannot lie in the organization which teaches Jesus Christ as God. And, in the light of what is known of these truths of the Spirit of God in view of the recent demonstrations of "Psychiana," it has been abundantly proved that God is to be found entirely outside of the church theory of "salvation" and in direct opposition to the story the church teaches.

But let none think that we here at Moscow, Idaho, entertain any ideas like Hitler or Communist Russia entertain. All we are seeking to do is to bring the truths of the Infinite Spirit of God to this earth. We don't care what happens to the story of Jesus Christ as God, for that story is certainly only old pagan superstition. It is not of God. And if it is not of God, it will go the way all things will go which are not of God. Hitler and Communism on the one hand, seeking to destroy God. Dr. Robinson and "Psychiana" on the other hand, seeking to bring the truths of God to a suffering, despondent humanity. Which side do you choose to be on?

Japan's Crime

The most damnable weapon yet devised for warfare is being used in this twentieth century in Japan's "undeclared" war on China, which war, by the way, they will never win. The weapon to which I refer is not made of steel! It is far more deadly in its effect. It is morphine, cocaine, and heroin. It is a well-established fact that the Japanese army, through the ingenious and systematic distribution of dope, has accomplished more to destroy the Chinese than through any other weapon. It has debauched tens of thousands without firing a shot at them. And those tens of thousands who have been debauched are human beings, just like you and I. Yet the Jap is obsessed by a religious belief, and passion, that that nation is "ordained by God to bring civilization to the Western world." What perfidy is that. We have heard of other religions to which, according to them, God Almighty has given the safe-keeping and the "salvation" of the rest of us. And whenever you hear such a claim, regardless of whence it comes, you can discount it 100 per cent as being pure unadulterated religious propaganda, used for the sole purpose of extending the boundaries and the numbers of that organization. If I were God Almighty, I should be tempted to wipe from off the face of the earth the whole mess of humanity as it exists today. There are a few exceptions, such as these United States, but if this country is not careful, we too might find ourselves under dictatorship, for such things sneak in under various disguises sometimes.

The crying shame of the present world situation lies in the fact that there are whole hordes of people living on the earth today, and belonging to some "religion" or other, who have the unmitigated gall to tell the rest of us that they operate as "agents of God." Yet not one of these "religions" can do one single thing about the sin, the crime, the war, etc., which are blighting this earth today. And the pity of it all is that the "god" they say they are "worshipping" can do nothing either. I wouldn't "worship" any god who could not step into this muddled world picture and bring peace out of it. It is these heathen and pagan conceptions of god, as given to the world by these "systems of religion," which have made the world what it is today. They are all honest. They mean well. But they do not know the Spirit of God Almighty, which Spirit lives and abides in each one of us. They have to have a "god" nobody knows where. They have to remove "god" from this earthly picture, and then tell us poor "believers" that the only way we can know God is through that particular organization. And thinking (?) Americans say they believe that stuff. Really they don't, but they were born and raised in families which did.

Let none misunderstand me. I love everything right. I give these "religions" credit for being honest. But this world will have to have a new conception of God brought to it or it will perish. Make no mistake about that. No conception of God has ever been brought to the world which had, in itself, the seeds of the True Conception of God. None of them have anything in them which can save anything. And the reason is that they all originated in the dark and pagan past. The religion, and the conception of God, which will save this world will come from anticipating God, and not looking to the dark ages of the past. There is not one single system of religion in existence which even faintly suspects the Power of the Spirit of God, as that Power exists now in human lives. But that Power cannot be known as long as "false and pagan gods" are offered to the world. And that's the only kind of a god any nation has had offered to it to date. But times are changing. This "Psychiana" Movement is pregnant with spiritual Power. Let none deride, or scoff, for before too long, it will be demonstrated to this world that the Spirit of God is operating through us. Our whole aim is to bring knowledge of this invisible Power to the world. After that is done, we shall fold our tents, and, like the Arabs, disappear, and shall ask the world to forget us.

You can assist this work materially by asking your friends to subscribe for the Weekly. Show them a copy. They will want it every week.

Demonstrating God

It is easy to demonstrate God. You may be apt to think that is a very hard thing to do, but let me assure you it is not. You demonstrate God anyhow every moment you live, but you do it unconsciously. When you consciously demonstrate God in everything you do, that's something else again. For then, everything you turn your hand to will be successful. If there is any lack in your life, it will be supplied through the indwelling Spirit of God. If you do not know which way to turn, you just keep on going straight ahead, for there, at your right hand, is the Power of the Spirit of God. And with such a stupendous Power ever available, how can you lack anything? Of course, it will take you some time to make the transition from your old ideas of God to the new, but if you persevere you will have little trouble.

Any belief which tells you that you have to go either to "hell" or to "purgatory," and any system of theology which makes you less carefree and less active, and more superstitious, is, I am afraid, of the devil instead of being of God. Beware then, when you see black robes and hoods parading round under the garb of God and religion. They may be wolves in sheep's clothing.

The Weekly

More and more letters come in thanking me for the Weekly. We are glad indeed that we have been able to do something further which will make the Spirit of God more real to our Members. It's nice. Every other letter asks for articles by Dr. Tenney—well, how do you know that you haven't been reading articles by Dr. Tenney? You haven't, though. But I have asked the doctor to write some articles as soon as he has time to, and I have his assurance that he will. Trouble with both of us is that there should be 48 hours in a day. Then, if there were, we could do a lot more than we are doing now. However—I promise you that articles by Dr. Tenney will appear as soon as he has the time to write them. And I just hope you like his articles so much better than you do mine, that you insist that Tenney write every article in every issue of the Weekly. You might, for Dr. Tenney is a man with a very keen mind. He knows exactly what I am trying to do, and he has the advantage over me of having a much better education.

Dr. Tenney is a real man, I'm telling you, and you are very fortunate in having a man of his experience to write to and for you. He is a constant source of inspiration to me. I have never yet asked Dr. Tenney to change one single part of his religious beliefs, and so far as I know, he takes issue with me on many points of theology. For instance, I contend that it is fundamental to the Christian religion whether Jesus Christ ever lived or never lived. Yet Dr. Tenney has a far greater faith in the existence of Jesus than I ever had. I know that, and it is his privilege to hold whatever religious views he cares to. I honor and respect the religious views of all, if honestly held. My work, and the work of this entire Movement, is to make the Spirit of God a Living Power in the lives of our Students. If I can do that, they can believe the moon is made of green cheese if they want to.

It has been my experience, however, that when God becomes a living reality in the life, that Spirit very effectively leads one into the fullness of theological truth. It leads one to God. If, after having found God, a person chooses to believe something which may be true and may not be true, that is his or her business. I care not. Just as long as men and women can find God in their lives as a Living Potent Vital Spirit of life that's all I'm interested in. So I will get after Dr. Tenney again, and tell him he's falling down on the job if he doesn't get out an article for the Weekly pretty soon. Thanks for the interest in us.

A man who has true religion may be at once recognized by the cheerfulness which sticks out all over him. Those who, instead of true religion, have religious superstition, may be at once recognized by the gloom and fear which shows in their faces. Religious superstition never yet led one soul to God, in spite of all the millions who now believe in it. It never can, because it is not of God. Superstition never is of God.

I know that there is little hope among the churches of ever bringing God to the world with the theology they have. I know, and you know, too, that they are offering to mankind an idol instead of the Spirit of God. And this worries me. It pains me. I want to do more than we are doing. I know full well that if the Power of the Spirit of God could only be taught to the world by our churches, such an ocean of Spiritual Power could be brought into play that the whole world, ere long, would gladly acknowledge both the Power and the existence of the Spirit of God. That done, this world would enter a new phase of civilization. In it, the Supreme God of the universe would be recognized by all, and wars, crime, poverty, unhappiness, etc., would once and forever be banished from the face of the earth.

Dr. Tenney has been in his office most of the day dictating letters, and in the morning there will probably be about 400 letters awaiting the dictaphone operators when they come on duty. I have been stewing and worrying all day about the state of the world. I see the condition in Europe getting worse, for only yesterday Hitler and Chamberlain made their speeches, and these two speeches, I am afraid, eliminated any chance of peace. Mr. Welles might just as well come home again, for those nations in Europe are not going to stop fighting until one side or the other is completely demolished. That is, they
